

I prefer rules in place that will serve the public, not private, interest. I strongly oppose a vote that leads to more media consolidation, and urge you to retain the current ownership rules.